

FEDERAL ELECTION REPORT CARD 2025

Australia votes on 3 May 2025. What arts and culture vision do the major parties offer?

NAVA's Policy Priorities	The Greens	Labor	Liberal–National Coalition (LNP)
Secure artists' futures	Pilot a Living Wage for Artists program for up to 10,000 artists Funding for an artist in residence in all public schools and public libraries $2B over a decade to support the sustainability and future of the arts Wipe all student debt Protect artists' rights and regulate AI and big tech	Continue the implementation of Revive $12M increase to Creative Australia core funding for Revive Protect artists' rights by regulating the use of creative work by AI Reduce HELP/HECS by 20% $18M commitment to Jewish Arts Quarter project	$18M commitment to Jewish Arts Quarter project
Invest in a stronger visual arts workforce	$300M Arts Capital Works Fund to expand and revitalise arts infrastructure	Creative Workplaces Centre to support skills development Australian Universities Accord to improve education access
Defend artistic independence	Revitalise Creative Australia and bring in new leadership Protect arm's length funding processes	Reaffirm arms-length funding through Revive Maintain Creative Australia's independence	Review into Creative Australia grants to anti-Israel artists

Authorised by Penelope Benton for the National Association for the Visual Arts (NAVA) www.nava.net.au Compiled from publicly available information and campaign materials. Updated on 29 April 2025.

Not reflective of election commitments made in the final campaign days.

Where the Report Card shows a blank space, we welcome all party representatives to make public commitments or contact NAVA directly.