

Future/ Forward

Professor Marie Sierra

Marie Sierra has held numerous solo and group exhibitions within Australia and overseas, published many articles on contemporary art, and won several grants and awards, including five Australia Council Grants. Originally from Philadelphia, she came to Australia as a postgraduate student, and then lived in Melbourne for 24 years, where she built an art practice focused on nature as a social construct. While there she worked in senior roles at the Victorian College of the Arts, University of Melbourne, and also at RMIT's School of Art. Marie was at the University of Tasmania from 2010-2014, where she was inaugural Head of the Tasmanian College of the Arts (TCotA), and has recently relocated to Sydney to become the Deputy Dean and Head of School at UNSW Art & Design (formerly COFA).