

Future/ Forward

Jasmin Stephens

Jasmin Stephens is Sydney-based independent curator. She has held audience development, programming and curatorial roles in many institutions, including Fremantle Arts Centre in Perth, and in Sydney, the Museum of Contemporary Art Australia, Artbank, Artspace and the Art Gallery of New South Wales. She has also been a Visiting Curator and Asialink Arts Management Resident with the Singapore Biennale (2011) and undertaken a curatorial residency with The Reading Room in Bangkok (2013). Stephens has curated over 70 exhibitions. Her recent exhibitions include far and wide: Narrative into Idea, UTS Gallery, University of Technology, Sydney (2014) and Collection+ Pinaree Sanpitak at Sherman Contemporary Art Foundation, Sydney (2014). She has also recently worked with artist David Haines as a curatorial participant on the 2014 Kuandu Biennale at the Kuandu Museum of Fine Arts, Taipei, Taiwan. This year she has written for Art Asia Pacific, Vault magazine and ARTAND Australia.