

Future/ Forward

Dr Andrew Frost

Andrew Frost is an art critic, curator and broadcaster. His articles have been published in a variety of Australian and international websites, journals and magazines. He is the art critic for Guardian Australia and is a regular contributor to The Sydney Morning Herald. Since 2007 Frost has written and presented a series of documentaries on contemporary art for ABC1, the most recent of which is Conquest of Space: Science Fiction and Contemporary Art [2014]. He is the author of the monograph The Boys [Currency Press] and A Personal History of Soviet Space Exploration [Pretty Bad Horse].