Dr Peter Bowden

Dr Peter Bowden has recently edited a book on applied ethics, and has just published a book on whistleblowing, covering Australia, Great Britain and the United States. His career to date has been in institutional strengthening, concentrating since 2003 on institutional ethics. He was Professor of Administrative Studies at the University of Manchester, and prior to that, Coordinator of the MBA program at Monash University. He has worked with or advised a number of international organisations, including the World Bank, the Asian Development Bank, and United Nations agencies. Most of this work was on strengthening national or sectoral institutions. He is currently Research Associate in the Department of Philosophy at the University of Sydney and a member of the Executive Council of the Australian Association for Professional and Applied Ethics. The edited book can be found at http://www.tup.net.au/publications-new/Applied\_Ethics.aspx and the whistleblowing book "In the Public Interest" on Amazon <http://www.amazon.com/In-Public-Interest-Protecting-Whistleblowers/dp/0734611862>
