

Future/ Forward

Franchesca Cubillo

Franchesca Cubillo is a Larrakia, Bardi, Wardaman and Yanuwa woman from the 'Top End' of the Northern Territory. She is currently Senior Advisor for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Art at the National Gallery of Australia. She has over twenty years' experience working in state and national cultural institutions.

In 2006, she undertook a Churchill Fellowship to investigate international responses to the repatriation of the ancestral remains of indigenous nations worldwide. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Aboriginal Affairs and Honours in Anthropology from the University of Adelaide and is currently undertaking a PhD at the Australian National University.